- ③ Plot Summary

I just finished reading Goldilocks and the Three Bears, and it was totally unrealistic. The book is about a nice little girl named Goldilocks who finds a house in the forest and decides to just stroll in and make herself at home. She makes herself a snack, watches some TV, and then curls up for a nap. Someone ought to teach this girl some manners.

- ④ What you liked about the book

My favorite thing about the book was that it had three bears in it, and bears tend to be really, really scary. My least favorite thing was that these bears weren't. In fact, you could almost call these bears cute, and I hate cute! The bears found Goldilocks in their house and they didn't even eat her! Very disappointing.

- ⑤ What you didn't like about the book

Overall I thought Goldilocks and the Three Bears was not nearly scary enough. The bears were all cute, Goldilocks was too happy, and she didn't even get arrested at the end. If you like happy books about nice people you might like Goldilocks, but it was definitely not for me!
